ORDER

On October 15, 2012, the Court received an extensive mailing from William Dixon – Petitioner in this habeas corpus matter – addressed to the undersigned’s chambers instead of the Clerk’s office. The mailing has not been reviewed by the undersigned. As is the usual practice, the mailing is being referred to the Clerk for docketing as “Correspondence from Petitioner.” Because the documents contain Petitioner’s personal identifiers, the filing shall be placed UNDER SEAL, with access given to case participants only.

Having reviewed the docket sheet of this matter, the Court notes that Petitioner is represented by counsel. Recognizing that the mailing is from Petitioner himself, and not from his counsel, the Court has some concern that counsel may not have seen the documents prior to being mailed to the Court. Counsel may, of course, now review the filing via CM-ECF.
